LEARNING ABOUT AVIATION

Girl Guides from Richmond Hill and Mississauga were at Brampton Flight Centre recently, learning about women in aviation. This is the ninth year they have hosted the event, helping the young women earn their Aeronautic Badges. Pilot and volunteer Sherry Kremko and volunteer pilot Contessa Bishop were explaining some of the functions of aircraft to the girls.Photo by Bill Rea