Liberals holding forum tonight

The Dufferin-Caledon Federal Liberal Association is launching a new initiative to communicate with its membership, as well as the public.

They will be holding a series of forums that are open to all. The first one is planned for tonight (Thursday) at Victoria Parks Community Centre at 35 Victoria Cres. in Mono Mills.

The agenda will include a presentation from the Organization Chair and Committee on strategy, plans and actions to win in the next election; a presentation on the Carbon Tax Discussion Paper which is before the House of Commons; and discussion on the new Conservative leadership and anticipated effects on Canada and Dufferin-Caledon.

The guest speaker will be Bolton resident Skid Crease, a noted lecturer and speaker, whose topic will be Environmental Security in the Trump Era.

Tonight's open forum will start at 7 p.m.
