

Woman killed on Highway 9

Caledon OPP are still investigating a two-vehicle crash Tuesday on Highway 9 that claimed the life of a young King City woman. Police report Caitlyn Marie Dodds, 19, was pronounced dead at the scene. The collision, involving a westbound tractor trailer and the eastbound passenger vehicle Dodds was driving, took place shortly after noon just west of Highway 50.

The road was closed for several hours while the investigation proceeded.

While the investigation is ongoing, police don't anticipate there will be any charges laid.
