

DON'T FORGET THE POPPY

Remembrance Day is this week, and it's a good time to remember those who served and fell for Canada in military operations over the years by wearing a poppy. There are plenty of places where poppies are available. Chief Petty Officer 2nd Class Andrew Grgas and Leading Seaman Jaskaran Grewal, of Royal Sea Cadet Corps Crescent, were selling poppies outside the Tim Hortons outlet on Queen Street North in Bolton Saturday.