Register for winter programs at CPCC

During the week of Jan. 29 to Feb. 3, families with children up to six years of age will be glad to know that they can register for free interactive programs at Caledon Parent-Child Centre (CPCC), such as Play & Learn, Toddler Move and Groove, Moms Meet Up, Math Is Everywhere, School Here I Come and many more.

Registration is accepted by phone or in person during Family Time Drop In at the CPCC in Bolton. Based on registration volume and space limitations, a lottery system may be used to determine participation.

CPCC is a non-profit community service organization and EarlyON Centre that provides support, resources and education that strengthen families and promote the optimal development of children. Parents and caregivers with young children can access a variety of free child development programs, family support services and helpful including detailed program information on parenting.
