Police investigate incident where car crashes into house

Officers from the Ontario Provincial Police (OPP) Caledon Detachment responded to a report of a vehicle driving into a house in Caledon East.

On Friday, April 27, 2018 at approximately 2:20 p.m. a vehicle was traveling on Marion Street approaching Larry Street. For unknown reasons the vehicle lost control, proceeded through the intersection where it struck a house and went through the garage. The vehicle ended up in the back yard of the house.

Officers arrived at the scene and quickly removed the driver and passenger who were unable to exit the vehicle.

Officers evacuated the surrounding residences due to a potential gas leak at the scene.

Peel Regional Paramedics, Caledon Fire Services and Enbridge Gas officials attended the scene.

The driver and occupant of the vehicle were not injured in the collision. There was a resident in the house at the time of the collision but they were not injured.

Occupants in the surrounding houses were allowed to return to their homes at approximately 3:10 p.m.

Officers will be investigating if the driver was suffering from a medical emergency at the time of the collision.

Impaired driver arrested

Officers from the Ontario Provincial Police (OPP) Caledon Detachment have arrested and charged a transport truck driver after his vehicle became wedged on a tight turn in Caledon.

On Friday, April 27, 2018 at approximately 8:30 a.m. officers responded to a transport truck that was unable to move after attempting to make a tight turn on eastbound Forks of the Credit Road, west of Highway 10, in the Town of Caledon.

During the investigation the driver was arrested at the scene. A 59-year-old man from Salmon Arm, British Columbia has been charged with: Operate Motor Vehicle with Over 80mgs of Alcol in Blood, Drive While Disqualified, Drive while Suspended, Drive Under License of Another Jurisdiction While Suspended in Ontario, Disobey Sign.

The accused was held for a bail hearing. Forks of the Credit Road was closed for a short period of time in both directions while recovery crews removed the transport truck and trailer.
