EGANS HELD ANNUAL MEMORIAL SERVICE

Egan Funeral Home held their 23rd annual Christmas Memorial Service at Nashville Road Community Church in December. More than 700 people gathered to hear Bill Webster's message on "An Unexpected Change of Direction." Anyone who has experienced a loss, whether this year or in years passed, were invited to attend. Many families commented how they begin their Christmas season with the candlelight service, as it helps them manage through the holiday season, along with Bill's suggestions. After hearing Angela sing O Holy Night, families lit candles on the tree in memory of their loved one and then listened to Angela sing Breath of Heaven. Everyone found comfort in the readings by the clergy who attended. Pictured are Rev. Dr. John Vincent, Rev. Lloyd Paul, Johanna Webster, Angela Hay, Rev. Carol-Ann Chapman, Dr. Bill Webster, and organist

My Fair Lady to open Orangeville Music Theatre's 40th season

By Constance Scrafield

Community theatre in this area is remarkable for both the quality of the productions and the loyalty of the audiences.

(OMT) is celebrating 40 years. Now a two-part organization, one might say, time frame — one performed by adults and a different one by the children, rehearsed at the same time and produce one after the other — pretty impressive.

This year, audiences will be treated to My Fair Lady, played by the adults of the her speaking and starts to make notes, group, and Peter Pan Jr, performed by the children. Each has its story for the delights him with its crudity and roughjournalist and each provides entertain- ness. The gentleman is Professor Henry ment for the public.

Accessibility = Good Business

Nominations are now open for Caledon's first ever Accessibility Award for Businesses.

It is presented once a year to an organization or business in Caledon that has shown a concerted effort to improve accessibility. Improved accessibility can mean either physical alterations or new programs or features that reduce barriers and permit greater access to services for those with disabilities.

Established by the Accessibility Advisory Committee and supported by Council, the Accessibility Award recognizes an organization or business for its efforts to comply with the Integrated Accessibility Standards Regulations of the AODA. By recognizing an organization or business, the hope is for others to be encouraged to make accessibility improvements for their patrons. The Accessibility Award is presented at a meeting of Council in recognition of National Access Awareness Week. The recipients are also recognized on the Town's website and through traditional and social media announcements.

Nominations close on March 31, 2018 at 4:30 p.m.

A year in review of the current Liberal government

Another year has passed for the current Liberal government.

Sadly, 2017 didn't amount to much for this government, except for scandals, more broken promises, growing deficits, and increased taxes for ordinary, hardworking Canadians and their families. Looking back on the last year for this government, there is little to celebrate leaving Canadians concerned about what 2018 will bring, given the current government's track record to date.

the Finance Minister's vast assets and his failure to properly disclose, divest or place them in a blind trust as required by the Conflict of Interest Act. This was Liberal hypocrisy at its best, as the Finance Minister was making the most important financial decisions for our country and trying to place tax hikes on those he calls tax cheats, while at the same time, standing to personally benefit from those very tax changes.

The fall did not end well for the current Liberal government either. The Auditor General tabled his Fall 2017 Reports which his government created the problems of the examined the bungled Phoenix Pay System, Canada Revenue Agency (CRA) Call Centres, Settlement Services for Syrian Refugees, Oral Health Programs for First Nations and Inuit, Preparing Women Of- by holding the current Liberal government

College of Canada. His reports confirmed a number of concerning issues that are plaguing the current Liberal government. The Auditor General estimates that because of Liberal inaction, the Phoenix Pay System will cost the taxpayer more than half a billion dollars to fix and more than 150,000 public servants still have outstanding pay requests waiting to be processed.

The Auditor General's report on CRA call centres highlighted that the Prime Minister's tax collection agency only answered 36 per cent of incoming calls, while blocking 29 million calls from Canadians. Worse still, 30 per cent of the time the Agency couldn't This fall, Canadians also became aware of even provide an accurate response! The Prime Minister's adding insult to injury when he hikes taxes on middle-class Canadians and then allows his tax collectors to ignore or mislead the very people forced to pay for his $100 billion deficit.

Throughout 2017, Canadians became increasingly and understandably frustrated by the mounting scandals, tax hikes and hypocrisy displayed by the current Liberal government. We, the Conservative Opposition, have a simple message for Canadians - you cannot trust Justin Trudeau. He and last year. Real leadership and vision are required to fix the problems they've made. In 2018, we will continue to be the voice of ordinary, hardworking, taxpaying Canadians

Hydro, hydro, hydro is on residents' minds

When I speak to residents in Dufferin-Caledon, whether they are an owner of a small business or a local doctor, whether they are a retired pensioner or they are just starting a family, one issue comes up more than any other: skyrocketing hydro rates.

It is not hard to understand why. Hydro rates have tripled, with some families paying $1,000 more than they did in 2003. For years, the government made politically-motivated and reckless decisions that have driven up the cost of We also know that the Liberal hydro poloverpaid $9.2 billion for hydro, because the government provided sweetheart deals to energy companies, meaning hyscaping, scuba gear and raccoon traps. together.

The plan will also address Ontario's oversupply of electricity, by placing a moratorium on any new energy contracts and renegotiating contracts where feasible for an additional four per cent off the average hydro bill.

Under the Liberals, hydro rates have tripled to some of the highest in North America. The PC plan for electricity is long-term and sustainable and will mean real relief for families, small business and farmers. In loving memory of Alice 'Jean' Harkies

1928 - January 13, 2012

I remember the day I met

And the day God made you mine. I remember the day God took you And will till the end of time We made our vows together Until death do us part. But the day God took you from me

My world fell apart. Sometimes I think I am dreaming

I can't believe it is true' That I can go on living When I no longer have

And the memories of the happy years, when we were together.

The joys, the fears, the love, the tears Will stay with me forever. And when I am sad and

Ionely and everything goes wrong, I seem to hear your voice whisper 'Cheer up, Ralph, and carry on. Each time I see your picture you seem to smile and

'Don't' cry. I'm sleeping. We'll meet again someday.'
