A Mayor who puts Caledon residents, businesses, and community groups FIRST.

Conservatives present a plan to fix Trudeau's pipeline failures

The current Liberal government still doesn't have a plan to put the Trans Mountain pipeline expansion project on track to being built after spending $4.5 billion of taxpayer money to buy it.

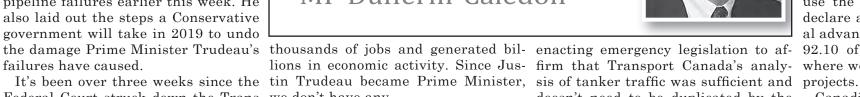

The leader of the Official Opposition, Andrew Scheer, in stark contrast, laid out a clear plan to fix Trudeau's pipeline failures earlier this week. He also laid out the steps a Conservative government will take in 2019 to undo failures have caused.

Giving Thanks and celebrating Ontario's Agricultural Community By Sylvia Jones, MPP Dufferin-Caledon Thanksgiving has long been a tradition for many families to gather and celebrate with food and friendship.

In Canada, there is much to be thankful for beyond the customary giving thanks for a bountiful harvest. The customs most often observed by many in North America include recognizing that the traditional growing season has ended.

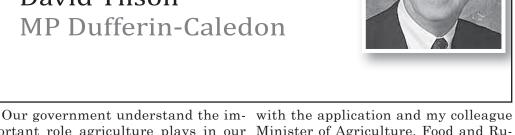

Your thanksgiving meal will likely include goods that are produced by Ontario farmers and producers. Ontario is home to more than 49,000 farms that includes over 200 products that we enjoy each and every day.

Thanksgiving is a great opportunity to understand the field to fork connection and it is why October 1st through October 7th is observed as Ontario Agricultural Week.

There are many areas in Dufferin-Caledon where natural gas is supplied up to a certain point on a road or street, and yet neighbours close by have not been able to access that natural gas supply line. I've been pushing for the expansion of natural gas access for rural residents in Dufferin-Caledon for many years and I am pleased that Bill 32 directly addresses the concerns of my community.

These two measures are clear indications that Ontario's Government for the People is committed to rural communities and to farmers.

I am pleased to share this news and look forward to reporting on other initiatives that we are working on that will make a difference to farmers, producers and the supporting businesses for the agricultural sector.

As we mark Ontario Agriculture Week and celebrate Thanksgiving, give thanks to our farmers and producers for providing our safe and abundant food supply.

Ward 1 roads have been neglected over the years and are so poor vehicles are being damaged. Service levels have been reduced not improved. Improved road quality must become a priority investment.

Recreation facilities for Ward 1. Town has been shutting facilities down with no replacement plan and no assessment of Ward 1 recreation needs.

Improve the Building Department speed and quality of service. Applications for new building and renovations now take two to four months to obtain with many added Town requests, causing further delay, for minor information not stipulated at initial application stage.

Permissive Official Plan housing policies for seniors co-op housing and Building By-law changes to support aging-in-place features for new house construction.

Smart road planning is needed now to reduce costs and improve efficiency in the future. I'll work tirelessly to protect us from munity. I believe I can bring a fresh perspective costly road works serving drivers passing through instead of those which create a desirable rural network for our community.

The threat of suburbanization must be tackled immediately. Developers push agendas that serve their interests but not those of the existing community. I'll be the strong, informed voice needed to manage development and safeguard our rural way of life.

Visitors flock to bask in our landscapes and serenity. We need to plan now for infrastructure and facilities that efficiently manage a growing volume of day visitors and support local businesses. I'll listen to my community and lead the development that's needed for local businesses to thrive.

Bye, Sylvia (Duxbury)

In her 75th year sadly passed away Friday, September 28, 2018 after a long and courageous battle with Chronic Obstructive Pulmonary Disease (COPD). Loving wife of her late husband Bev Bye. She worked as a medical librarian at the Academy of Medicine (Toronto) and the North York General Hospital before retiring to Caritas, her beloved country cottage in Mulmur. Marjory was a life-long learner and dedicated volunteer. Her gentle spirit, compassion, determination, and wit will not be forgotten by those whose lives were enriched through her volunteer work for the Headwaters Health Čentre, the Mayor's Seniors Advisory Committee, and other community organizations. An avid reader and crafter, her many and varied interests included knitting, needlework, gardening and puzzles of all kinds. Please join her family as they remember Marjory at Dods & McNair Funeral Home, Chapel & Reception Centre, 21 First St., Orangeville, Ontario on Wednesday, October 10, 2018 at 2:00 p.m. A tree will be planted in memory of Marjory in the Dods & McNair Memorial Forest at the Island Lake Conservation Area, Orangeville. BEST OF THE BEST: Caledon's Lindsay Webster proved herself against the best athletes in the world and came out on top.

Caledon's Webster earns Spartan World Champion title

Written By JAKE COURTEPATTE

Lindsay Webster was seeing double gold at Lake Tahoe, California last weekend, where she earned the title as one of the top super athletes in the world.

en's World Champion at the 2018 Spartan World Championship, as well as led Team Canada to victory in the adjacent Team World Champion-

The 29-year old Webster said winning the World Championships "means the world" to

"Words can't even describe," said Webster. "I've spent months preparing for every aspect of this race, from practicing heavy carries, to preparing my muscles for the leg smash on mountain descents, to race simulations, and even coming out early to get acclimated to altitude."

The top obstacle racers from over fifty countries converged on the 20-plus kilometer "Spartan Beast" course, forced to deal with 34 obstacles and elevations over 4,000 feet. Webster, who only picked up the sport of Obstacle Course Racing (OCR) four years ago, finished more than four minutes ahead of her closest competitor with a time of 2:25:27.

The team portion of the event saw Webster bring pride not only to town but to country, leading the Team Canada women's crew of three to four out of six victories over Team USA.

It was the second year in a row Webster was crowned Spartan World Champion, first reaching the top of the podium in 2017.

"It almost still hasn't even dawned on me." said Webster. "It's such a surreal moment...this is everything that I've been working towards for years now." Both the Spartan World Championship and Team World Championship will air on ESPN in upcoming episodes of "Spartan: The Championship Series" later this year. With the most monumental race of her career behind her, there is simply no time for rest in the life of a super athlete: Webster will have the opportunity to take home a million-dollar prize if she can replicate her first-place finish in both of the other legs of the Sparta World Championship, happening in Sparta, Greece in November and the 24-hour Ultra World Championship in Iceland in December.

Nicknamed the "Sparta Trifecta", the prize is up for grabs to any athlete who can sweep the series: a goal Webster has now set her sights on.

"Some of the work outs I dreaded days ahead of time, sometimes I'd want to quit halfway through them but I never let myself even if it made me scream with frustration...because I knew my competition was working just as hard to prepare. Every second you can eek out matters when you're competing against this level of athlete."

For her win in the Spartan World Championship, Webster split a pool of $125,000 with the othertop-placing athletes. The Teamportionsaw The Caledon native was crowned the Wom- the teams split a prize of over $10,000 as well.

Dear Residents, my priorities are:

Invest in our Roads

With increased traffic volumes and frequent extreme weather conditions, greater investment combined with other transit solutions will assist in improving our current state.

Livable Communities

Continuing to expand on the work we've done over the past four years to ensure a safe, vibrant and connected community we can all be proud of into the future.

Establishing a Senior Friendly Community

With an aging population that is active and healthy, it is essential that we work to help our seniors' age in place and remain an integral part of our community.

Attracting Employment & Investment

There is much more work to be done to champion our existing businesses, while attracting new investment to our community so that our residents can work where they live.

It's about Community.

BUT HE DOES!

Our brewmaster, Andrew Kohnen, threw away a successful career in logistics to pursue his dream of reconnecting with the brewing roots of his family. This carried him to the UK's prestigious Brewlab in Sunderland, England, where he procured the alchemy that would drive his signature brewing style.

He took what he could from there and ventured to Scotland, Cornwall, and ultimately to Krefeld, Germany, working in the same brewery that had belonged to his ancestors. He came home to Canada for Hockley.

You could call it dumb, but we call it destiny.
