

ANNUAL TEA HOSTED BY RISING ANGELS

Inglewood Community Centre was the scene recently of the annual Cup of Hope fundraiser, put on by Rising Angels. Rising Angels founder Katarina MacLeod and Sheila Howlett were on hand to help welcome people to the tea, held to help raise awareness of matters involving human trafficking and prostitution, as well as the supports available to help women getting out of such situations. Photo by Bill Rea