

Baffo?s Athletes of the Week ? December 19, 2013

Mayfield Secondary School Denzel Douglas This 17-year-old has been showing his prowess as a shooting guard on the senior boys' basketball team, which has opened its campaign with a 1-1 record. Away from school, he plays basketball in the Brampton Warriors organization. The Grade 12 student lives in Brampton with his parents Karen and Kells James.

Robert F. Hall Catholic Secondary School Aaron Coward This Grade 11 student contributed his talents as a slot back to the championship varsity football team this fall. When not in school, he plays football in the Orangeville Outlaws organization. He's also active in freestyle skiing at Caledon Ski Club. The 16-year-old lives in Mono Mills with his parents Mark and Arlene Coward.

St. Michael Catholic Secondary School Maya Allen This 16-year-old was a point guard on this year's varsity basketball team, which won at ROPSSAA and made it to the semifinals at OFSAA. Outside of school, she plays rep basketball and also helps coach in the Caledon Cougars organization. The Grade 11 student lives in Bolton with her parents Andre Allen and Susan Pennypacker.

Humberview Secondary School Jordan Keane This Grade 11 student is a point guard and shooting guard for the varsity basketball team, and he contributed six free throws to the teams 47-46 victory last week over Sandalwood Heights Secondary School. In the community, he plays basketball with CIA?Bounce. The 16-year-old lives in Bolton with his mother Sandra Keane.