

Baseball season starts this week

The local baseball scene will soon be in full swing as the North Dufferin Baseball League season starts Friday. Orillia and Innisfil lead off the junior division Friday night. Creemore travels to Orillia and Innisfil plays Barrie Sunday. The Bolton Brewers Senior team will play their first game on the road in Creemore Saturday with a 2 p.m. start. Other senior division action will see Clearview heading to Nobleton and New Lowell playing Midland. Sunday play has Ivy at Creemore, Aurora at New Lowell, Mansfield at Barrie, Midland at Lisle, and Bolton Dodgers at Angus. Recent withdrawal of both Midland Twins and New Lowell Knights from the junior division has reduced the juniors to six teams. The remaining teams will play a 20-game schedule. The senior division will play 26 games, with the regular season running to the end of July. Schedules for the junior and senior divisions are online at www.ndbl.ca
