

BLACKHORSE COOKS UP WILDLY FUNNY FARCE

Nominated for a Tony Award, 'Don't Dress for Dinner' is sweet and spicy comedy filled with mistaken identities with hilarious results.

Bernard is planning a romantic weekend with his chic Parisian mistress in his charming converted French farmhouse, whilst his wife, Jacqueline, is away. He has arranged for a Cordon Bleu cook to prepare gourmet delights, and has invited his best friend, Robert, along too to provide the alibi, setting the stage for a collision course of assumed identities and outrageous infidelities. The cook is Suzette, the lover is Suzanne, the friend is bewildered, the wife is suspicious, the husband is losing his mind and everyone is guaranteed a good time at this hilarious romp through the French countryside.

Written by Marc Camoletti and adapted by Robin Hawdon, 'Don't Dress for Dinner' is a sequel to the better-known hit comedy, 'Boeing-Boeing' that went from the Broadway stage to the big screen starring Tony Curtis and Jerry Lewis.

The Blackhorse Theatre first performed 'Don't Dress for Dinner' in June of 1997, and is proud to restage the production for their 50th anniversary season. Director Melanie Burgess leads a brand-new cast of talent.

'Don't Dress for Dinner' opens on June 7, with weekend performances continuing until June 25, 2023. Please visit www.blackhorsetheatre.ca to purchase tickets or for more information on dates, admission and showtimes.
