

Bolton United marking 140

Bolton United Church will be celebrating its 140th anniversary this coming Sunday (Oct. 2), with a service starting at 10 a.m. The Light Shines on, as it will be a celebration of the history and heritage of the church as members share memories of the past and look to the future. A light lunch will follow the service.