

Brampton man was charged with impaired

A police investigation into a flipped car resulted in a 41-year-old Brampton man facing charges.

Caledon OPP reports they were called to investigate a rollover collision July 2 on Mayfield Road, east of The Gore Road. An officer saw a black Honda Civic upside down in a ditch. Upon speaking to the driver, the officer noticed the smell of alcohol on his breath. The man was charged with impaired driving, driving with more than the legal limit of alcohol in his system and dangerous operation of a motor vehicle.

His licence was suspended for 90 days and the car was impounded for seven.
