

BRAVES TAKE TITLE IN STYLE

Over the weekend, the Bolton Braves minor peewee A baseball team captured the Southwest London Minor Peewee A Championship in true style. The Braves went undefeated, winning all five games by a combined total of 77 runs scored while allowing only nine. Four of their five victories were mercy wins. In the semifinal game, pitcher Ethan A. Hunt pitched a no-hitter as the Braves shut-out the Kawartha Cubs 21-0 in just three innings. In the final, the Braves were led by great starting pitching from Alex Coles, and once again, Ethan A. Hunt in relief. They were backed up by timely hitting and solid defense from the entire team as the Braves went on to beat the St. Thomas Cardinals 12-2 in the A Championship.
