

Brooks Athletes of the Week ? Jan. 7, 2016

Mayfield Secondary School
Rayven Rigato
This Grade 10 student contributed her skills as a point guard on the school's junior girls' basketball team, which compiled a 5-5 record over the season. She went out for track and field last year, specializing in the 1,500 and 3,000-metre runs, and is thinking of doing it again this year. Away from school, she takes part in a basketball camp in Mississauga during the summer, and competed in two 15-kilometre runs, finishing first in her age group in one. The 15-year-old lives in Brampton.

Robert F. Hall Catholic Secondary School
Brittney Gout
This 16-year-old plays centre for the girls' varsity hockey team. The squad compiled a 1-1 record to start the season, but also had a very successful tournament outing, in which she got 10 goals. She was also the quarterback on the flag football team that made it to the quarter-finals, and plans to play field lacrosse in the spring. In the community, she plays rep hockey with the Brampton Canadettes. The Grade 11 student lives in Campbell's Cross.

St. Michael Catholic Secondary SchoolKaela RossiThis Grade 9 student plays skip on the junior girls' curling team. The season got off to a bit of a rough start, with a tie and a loss. She's also active in cross-country running, with a best time of 16:10 for three kilometres. As well, she plays house league basketball in the Caledon Cougars' organization, and she's a forward in the Caledon Soccer Club. The 14-year-old lives in Bolton.

Humberview Secondary SchoolMackenzie MathiesonThis 16-year-old plays power for the senior girls' volleyball team, which opened the current season with two wins. She planning to try out for the rugby team in the spring, playing either eighth or flank. She played on the team last year. Away from school, she plays rep volleyball for the Richmond Hill Thunder Cats. The Grade 11 student lives in Bolton.