

Café Caledon returns to Caledon East

After a hiatus of several months, Café Caledon will once again be alive and well and meeting in Caledon East.

It will resume Feb. 17 at 7:30 p.m.

They will be talking about the traditional education system and how it may be time to take a look at how people are educated, and come up with a whole new creative way of doing this.

There will be a showing of a ?TED?-produced film featuring Sir Ken Robinson. He is an English author, speaker and international advisor on education in the arts to government, non-profits, education and arts bodies.

A Caledon Café format that encourages group conversations in a less-structured, relaxed atmosphere is one that works best. People prefer this type of café, where the focus is on conversation and the subjects are of current interest.

Café Caledon takes place in a casual coffeehouse setting with free admission, and snacks and beverages available. It will meet the third Wednesday of the month from 7:30 to 9 p.m.

The Café is still in the St. James Church Building, 6025 Old Church Rd. in Caledon East. There is lots of parking at the back of the building.
