Manuel de Sousa of Caledon had something to celebrate after winning $50,000 in the May 10 Daily Keno draw. ?I found out about my win on the same day that I bought my ticket,? he said at the OLG Prize Centre in Toronto where he picked up his winnings. ?The first thing I thought was that this win means a big weight off my shoulders. Things are starting to look up!? The self-employed, married father of two is planning to help his daughters pay off their tuition. ?My wife will also get a nice gift and I'm excited to help my family and close friends,? he concluded.
