

CAPTIVATING SHOW FOR COLD NIGHT

Patrons braved the cold of Friday night to take in the performance of Max Layton at CrossCurrents Café. The singer and songwriter performed much of his own material, while also reading from his poetry. He sang of love and celebrated his passion for this country and his diverse experiences. Photo by Bill Rea