

Chamber Concert series presents Trio Voce

Trio Voce will be the featured performers at Caledon Chamber Concerts next production in the 2013-14 series next Saturday (March 22).

Trio Voce is a piano trio whose single voice transcends the three instruments it comprises. The three individuals of Trio Voce communicate as one voice ('voce' in Italian), whether they are performing the repertoire of Haydn or that of the present day. Their first CD of the trio's of Shostakovich and Mieczyslaw Weinberg has garnered critical acclaim and was deemed an 'important addition to any serious collection of 20th century chamber music.'

Fanfare Magazine stated the CD exhibited 'deeply committed and passionate performances' and 'impressive music making, interpretively and technically.'

All three members, Jasmine Lin (violin), Marina Hoover (cello) and Patricia Tao (piano), are established performers who have studied with some of the great masters at schools such as Curtis, Yale and Harvard, have performed in halls such as Carnegie, Wigmore, Lincoln Center and Kennedy Center and throughout North America, Europe, Asia, South America and Australia, and have recorded on labels such as EMI, CRI, Naxos, Centaur, Arktos and Con Brio Recordings.

The March 22 concert will start at 8 p.m. and will feature music by Haydn, Dvořák and Schubert.

Caledon Chamber Concerts is grateful for funding support from the Ontario Arts Council, an agency of the Provincial government, and from the Town of Caledon.

The concert will be at St. James' Church, Caledon East. Tickets are $30 for adults, $15 for students 16 years and under, and may be purchased at BookLore, Forster's Book Garden and Howard the Butcher.

Tickets will also be available at the door. For more information or to reserve tickets, call 905-880-2445.

Trio Voce consists of Marina Hoover (cello), Jasmine Lin (violin) and Patricia Tao (piano).
