

Charge laid in drinking-driving incident

A 21-year-old Caledon man was charged after being stopped July 3 by an officer doing speed enforcement. Caledon OPP reports the officer was on King Street, near Kennedy Road, and spotted a dark BMW sedan travelling at high speed. the officer stopped the car and quickly noticed a strong smell on alcohol on the driver's breath. The man was charged with driving with more than the legal limit of alcohol in his system.