

Christmas Marketplace at St. Cornelius

The halls and gym at St. Cornelius Elementary School was packed recently with vendors selling their creations and groups offering information. The event was the annual Christmas Marketplace. Domenica Spadafora and Diana DiPlacido of Creative Balls in Maple had a number of colourful wreaths to sell. Photos by Bill Rea

Anna Barichello of Pretty Neck was showing an assortment of necklaces.

Lesley McCrimmon was offering information about Caledon East Family Chiropractic.

Santa Claus was on hand, meeting his many young friends.

Andrea Prieur and Cheryl Robb were representing the Caledon East Revitalization Committee.