

Claude Church hosts follow-up to ReframeCourse.com

Claude Church is ideally located at the gateway to the Caledon hills and the Headwaters region.

It is home to people who live, work and volunteer locally and beyond. It is a meeting place for travellers, athletes, artists, musicians, thinkers and support networks, and it is a gathering spot for worship, prayer, community, ruminating, pondering and considering.

Claude Church hosted ReframeCourse.com in the fall, produced by Regent College in Vancouver.

The Church is inviting one and all, starting this month to gather and discuss questions and ideas arising from ReframeCourse.com that inform the world view.

Questions and ideas will be considered through a three-week lecture and discussion series with Dr. Victor A. Sheperd, author and professor of theology at Tyndale University.

The series will be held three Saturdays, Jan. 23, Jan. 30 and Feb. 6 from 10 to 11:30 a.m. in the Parlour at Claude Church, 15175 Hurontario St. in Caledon.

Those are interested in a fresh perspective and interacting about some challenging questions and ideas can sign up for the lectures and discussions online at www.claudechurch.com/reframe.html
