

Concert Series presents the Madawaska Quartet

Caledon Chamber Concerts presents its next concert Feb. 28, and it will feature the Madawaska String Quartet.

Hailed for their astonishing talent, the Madawaska Quartet performs pieces from the mainstream to performance art, and from the Baroque to the present-day.

The Quartet has worked at the chamber music faculty at the Royal Conservatory of Music in Toronto, also performing as part of its Great Artist Series, and has given workshops for students and emerging composers at the University of Toronto, York University, the Array New Music Centre, the Composers' Guild of Canada and the Canadian Contemporary Music Workshop. As champions of Canadian composers and their works, the Quartet has premiered more than 30 new pieces. They have acted as ensemble in residence at both the Array New Music Centre and the Music Gallery in Toronto.

The concert takes place at St. James' Anglican Church, Caledon East at 8 p.m. Tickets are $30 for adults and $15 for students 16 years and younger and may be purchased in advance at Forster's Book Garden, Howard the Butcher and BookLore. Tickets will also be available at the door on the night of the concert.
