

CPCC?to hold annual Christmas party

The Caledon Parent-Child Centre/Ontario Early Years Centre (CPCC/OEYC) is gearing up for their annual children's Christmas party.

It will be next Saturday (Nov. 26) from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. This favourite holiday event for families with children up to six years of age will be held at the Albion-Bolton Community Centre in the auditorium.

CPCC is delighted to report that Silcotech North America will once again be supporting the event, which will feature a musical performance by popular children's performer Lenny Graf of Treehouse TV, as well as a special visit from Santa Claus.

New this year, the party will feature a Letter to Santa station where children attending can write a letter or mail one they brought from home, as well as a special craft that Santa's reindeer will love. A delicious light snack and door prizes are included in the ticket price as well. Face painting is also being offered again this year, for a small fee.

Tickets to the CPCC Children's Christmas Party are available in advance only, at a cost of $8 for adults and children (babies younger than 12 months are free). People are asked not to bring strollers.

This event sells out quickly, so be sure to get tickets early. Tickets may be purchased at the Caledon Parent-Child Centre. For more information, call CPCC/OEYC at 905-857-0090 or visit www.cp-cc.org

CPCC is a non-profit community service organization that provides support, resources, and education that strengthen families and promote the optimal development of children.
