

Craft Show at Caledon East School

The gym and halls at Caledon East Public School were busy places last Saturday as the school hosted its annual Craft Show. Santa Claus was on hand to meet his many friends, like junior kindergarten student Emre Tumer.

Randi Geddes of Itty Bitty Creations in Brampton had an assortment of accessories for little girls on display. Photos by Bill Rea

Janice Fisher of Janice Craft in Bolton had help from children Noelle, Louisa and Ilana.

There was a collection of painted and glass items available at the Paint Bar booth, run by Laurie Cameron of Collingwood.

Catherine Arthur of Catherine's Embroidery in Orangeville was busy embroidering items for people.