

Cuisine-Art goes this weekend at Alton Mill

Discover the region's best food, drink and creativity at this year's Cuisine-Art Festival at Alton Mill Arts Centre. Join local chefs, Alton Mill studio artists and beer, wine and cider masters for a delicious weekend celebration this Saturday and Sunday (June 20 and 21).

There will be tasting stations throughout the studios and art galleries where people can sip and sample. As well, there will be chef demos on the main stage, hands-on artist projects and daily cook-offs.

A Cuisine-Art Tasting Pass includes samples of delicious gourmet food; a choice of three samples of fine wine, craft beer and premium ciders; and galleries, shops and open studios where resident artists display their work and demonstrate their technique. There will be live jazz music all day and live theatre Sunday only.

There will also be a beer tent and barbecue (extra charges apply).

Cuisine-Art is a fundraiser for the Alton Millpond Rehabilitation project. Tickets are $25 in advance or $35 at the gate.
