

Doubts about God addressed at Lifetree Café

What happens to religious faith when hard times come?

That will be explored at Lifetree Café this coming Wednesday (Jan. 29) in Caledon East.

The program, entitled Where Is God When Life Turns Tough?, will feature the filmed story of John Stumbo, a healthy ultra-marathoner who was suddenly attacked by an undiagnosable, life-threatening illness.

"I discovered the faith I claimed as a child was being tested in a new way," Stumbo said. "It was being tested in an ICU ward, facing life or death."

Participants will discuss what happens to faith in the face of disappointment and disaster.

The program will run from 7 to 8 p.m., and admission is free. Snacks and beverages will be available.

Lifetree Café is at St. James' Anglican Church, 6025 Old Church Rd., in Caledon East.

Lifetree Café is a place where people gather for conversation about life and faith in a casual coffeehouse-type setting.
