

DQ Athletes of the Week ? Dec. 8, 2016

Mayfield Secondary School C.J. Maury The 15-year-old played setter on the school's junior volleyball team, which had a rather rough season, but managed to win their last five games. He also played shortstop on the varsity baseball team last year. As well, he played on the school's basketball team last year. Away from school, he plays rep baseball in the Toronto Mets organization. The Grade 10 student lives in Brampton.

Robert F. Hall Catholic Secondary School Sarah Trilesky This Grade 12 student plays defence on the school's varsity hockey team, and they got their season off to a good start, winning the first league game 8-1 against St. Marcellinus Secondary School. She played offence on the flag football team in the fall, and they made it to the quarter-finals, and she's planning to play field lacrosse in the spring. Away from school, she plays rep hockey for Brampton Canadettes. The 17-year-old lives in the Cheltenham area.

St. Michael Catholic Secondary School Daniel D'Amico The 15-year-old plays left wing for the varsity hockey team, which has started the season with a 4-0 record. He's contributed three goals and two assists to the cause. He's planning to play outdoor lacrosse in the spring. In the community, he plays AAA hockey in the Toronto Marlboros organization. The Grade 10 student lives in Bolton.

Humberview Secondary School Voula Migkos This Grade 12 student plays middle on the senior volleyball team, and they won the Humberview Spikedown last Thursday, as part of a season that seems to be off to a good start. In the community, she plays rep volleyball for the Peel Selects, and she used to play soccer for the Woodbridge Strikers. The 17-year-old lives in Bolton.