

DQ Athletes of the Week ? February 5, 2015

Mayfield Secondary School
Sean Fasoyiro This 16-year-old is a shooting guard for the school's senior boys' basketball team, which won their first six games of the current campaign. In the fall, he was a cornerback on the senior football team, and plans to go out for track and field in the spring, focusing on the 100 and 200 metres, as well as high jump. Away from school, he's active with Hoops Canada Elite. The Grade 11 student lives in Strawberry Fields with his parents Jeff and Laurencia Fasoyiro.

Robert F. Hall Catholic Secondary School
Christian Hauck This Grade 12 student plays centre for the varsity hockey team, and contributed five goals to the team winning its first four games. He played baseball for the school's varsity team at shortstop and was a power on the senior boys' volleyball team. Away from school, he plays AAA baseball in the Brampton Royals' organization and plays men's hockey at Teen Ranch. The Grade 12 student lives in Caledon village with his mother Monique Smith.

St. Michael Catholic Secondary School Jessica Fair The Grade 9 student has been making her contribution recently with the swim team. In a recent meet at Mayfield, she came in third in the 50-metre breaststroke and fourth in the 50-metre backstroke. Away from school, she trains at KC Swimming near Palgrave. The 14-year-old lives in Bolton. Her parents are Anna and Martin Fair.

Humberview Secondary School Morgan Poirier This Grade 10 student plays left wing for the varsity girls' hockey team, which is off to a good start for the season. She was also a wide receiver on the flag football team in the fall and is planning to play rugby in the spring. In the community, she plays in the Caledon Soccer Club and with the Clearview Hockey Club in Alliston. The 15-year-old lives in Palgrave with her parents Don and Charlene Poirier.
