

DQ Athletes of the Week ? Oct. 15, 2015

Mayfield Secondary School
Cougar Collins
This 16-year-old has been representing his school on the golf course, recently placing third at ROPSSAA, shooting a 74. Away from school, he plays golf at Osprey Valley Golf Course near Alton. He used to play AA left wing in the Caledon Hawks' organization and also is active in skiing and wakeboarding. The Grade 11 student lives in the Caledon village area with his parents Jeff and Cheryll Collins.

Robert F. Hall Catholic Secondary School
Gabriel Siemienieć
The Grade 12 student is the kicker for the senior boys' football team, which has opened the season with a 3-0 record. He contributed more than 30 points to the cause, including a 46-year field goal last Thursday. Away from school, he plays on Team Ontario, which won the national football championship in July 2014 (they were second this year). The 16-year-old lives in Caledon East with his parents Diana and Arthur Siemienieć.

St. Michael Catholic Secondary School
Ana-Marie Predoiu This 16-year-old has been enjoying success in singles tennis, earning the right to represent her school at ROPSSAA the last week of October. She has been playing tennis about four years and trains at a facility in Vaughan. The Grade 11 student lives in Bolton with her parents Andrea and Teodor Predoiu.

Humberview Secondary School
Mattias Biesenthal This Grade 11 student recently earned a spot playing golf in ROPSSAA, shooting a 93 at Glen Eagle Golf Club. He's also thinking of going out for basketball this year, playing either point or shooting guard. Away from school, he's active in skateboarding and snowboarding, as well as playing golf at Glen Eagle. The 16-year-old lives in Bolton with his parents Erika and Tom Biesenthal.
