

Easter fun at Wellness Centre

Caledon Centre for Recreation and Wellness (CCRW) was a very busy place Saturday as young and old were gathered for some Easter fun. Volunteers were scattering Easter eggs throughout the facility for young hunters to find. Nicholas Bedernjak, 2, of the Palgrave area and his mother Mal Wensierski were showing off all the eggs he found. Photos by Bill Rea

The Easter Bunny was on hand to meet his many friends, like Jaiden Rogers, 6, of Bolton.

There were plenty of opportunities for the young folks to get creative. Mason Markoff, 4, of Bolton was busy decorating this cookie.
