

Easterfest returns to Downey?s

There were plenty of Easter activities going on over the weekend at Downey's Farm Market, and the fun is slated to continue Saturday. There were regular Easter egg hunts at Easterfest. These eager youngsters were stampeding from the starting line. Photos by Bill Rea

Sara Dow of Tottenham was showing her daughters Addison, 4, and Savannah, 20 months, this new Holstein calf.

Abby Kurtes, 2, of Mississauga collected lots of Easter eggs.

Chloe Steeves, 18 months, of Scarborough, was a little nervous when it came to giving a High-Five to the Easter Bunny.

John Downey was conducting hayrides along the grounds of the farm.

This Easter Bunny was all decked out for the occasion.
