

Eat Local Caledon Spring Festival is Saturday

Celebrate spring, the start of the growing season and the region's local foods and producers this coming Saturday.

Come out to the annual Eat Local Caledon Spring Festival, being held from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m., at Inglewood Park (15549 McLaughlin Rd.) With more than 20 local vendors, patrons will find local salad greens, spring produce and wild edibles, as well as vegetable seeds, seedlings, perennials and organic compost for their gardens. Pick up local maple syrup, honey, preserves, gourmet baked goods, meats and prepared foods. Enjoy live music, a barbecue and much more.

For more information, email eatlocal@eatlocalcaledon.org