

Faceoff to fight cancer

The annual Faceoff to Fight Cervical Cancer will be taking place this Saturday night (April 7).

We Are Creative Inc. and Sports Marketing All Stars are back to present another fun night of double-header hockey action for the Bolton community at Don Sheardown Memorial Arena, while raising money and awareness for cervical cancer!

The girls vs. guys game is slated to start at 7:30 p.m., after the champions of the Sunday Night Hockey League are presented the Callaghan Cup. It will feature the CWHL's Markham Thunder, fresh off their Clarkson Cup championship win, against the Sunday Night Hockey League All Stars. Following the game is an end-of-season celebration, sponsored by Pommies Cider Co. and Caledon Hills Brewing.

Tickets are $10 for adults, and $5 for youngsters aged four to 10.

For ticket information, go to faceofftofight.ca or go to We Are Creative at 26 McEwan Dr. W., unit 2.
