

Families celebrate Valentine's Day

Caledon Parent-Child Centre (CPCC) had a good crowd of young and old out last Thursday for the annual Family Fun Night in recognition of Valentine's Day. Mary DiAdderio was painting Valentine's designs on the hand of Elyssia Breault, 2, of Bolton while her mother Marsha and eight-month-old sister Isabella watched. Photos by Bill Rea

There were a lot of young folks gathered to hear stories from Kelly Rumney.

CPCC has lots of great toys, and Sanja Herbst of Bolton was watching as eight-month-old Maja and Aleksandra, 7, gave them a try.
