

Finding hope during difficult times to be explored at Lifetree Café

Remaining hopeful while facing difficulties will be discussed at the next Lifetree Café session this coming Wednesday (March 26). The program, entitled Why Do Bad Things Keep Happening? Finding Hope . . . Against All Odds, will feature a screening of the short film My Last Days. The film chronicles the experiences of Ryan and Amy Green and their young son Joel as he faces repeated health challenges.

?It's hard each time, but there's still hope each time,? Mrs. Green said of her son's life-threatening issues.

Participants in the Lifetree program will experience an hour of encouragement and hope.

The program will run from 7 to 8 p.m.. Admission will be free and snacks and beverages will be available.

Lifetree Café is at St. James' Anglican Church, 6025 Old Church Rd., in Caledon East.

Lifetree Café is a place where people gather for conversation about life and faith in a casual coffeehouse-type setting.

Questions about Lifetree may be directed to Mark Tiller at 905-584-8506 or mark.lifetree@gmail.com