

Fines Ford takes over third place in men's hockey

James Heenan lit up Don Sheardown Memorial Arena Dec. 29 with four goals and two assists to lead Rutherford Global Logistics to a 6-3 win over Yale Industrial Trucks.

But that wasn't enough to advance them in the Caledon Senior Hockey League standings.

Fines Ford Lincoln downed Jiffy Lube Oilers 7-1 to climb over them and into third place, while Bolton Chiropractic Centre hung on to first with a 5-3 decision over George's Arena Sports.

Rutherford 6, Yale 3

Jim Horan was right behind Heenan with a goal and three assists while Bernie Tisdale had the other goal.

Peter Coghill, Ted Callighen and Bob Smith all had two assists with Dave Boyd adding a single.

Steve Tarasco scored twice for Yale with Dan Tasson getting the other one. Nick Taccogna was in brackets twice while Randy Freitag and Tony Calabro had single assists.

Fines Ford 7, Jiffy Lube 1

Jack Gibson padded his lead in the CSHL scoring race with two goals and an assist.

Dan Labine also had two goals while John Pitsadiotis added a goal and three assists. CSHL rookie John Pallotta struck for a goal and two assists with team rep Ian Kerr also scoring once. Bill Davis and Dom Ierullo both set up two goals with single assists going to Santo Gazzolla and Chris Spilar.

Mike McNamara had the lone Jiffy Lube goal on assists from Luch Pinarello and team rep Rich Petrie.

Bolton Chiropractic 5, George's 3

Rick Agar strutted his scoring stuff with a hat trick for the second week in a row for the Bonebenders.

Fellow centre Paul Speck was right behind him with two goals. Bruno Fracassi got out of the penalty box long enough to garner two assists, the same number as team rep David Shoalts. Howard Wight, Mike Shore, Jeff Boyles, Mark Perrin and John Crossley all had one assist.
