

FIREFIIGHTERS HOLD CAR WASH FOR BETHELL HOSPICE

Firefighters from Caledon village were busy Saturday running a charity car wash at Caledon Village Place. It was a fundraiser for Bethell Hospice in Inglewood. District Chief Scott Miller said this was the first event of its kind for the Caledon Village Firefighters' Association, and it raised more than $2,000. Submitted photo