

Flags lowered in memory of constable

Town of Caledon council and staff have extended condolences to family, friends and former colleagues of Constable Jennifer Kovach of the Guelph Police Service.

Const. Kovach was killed on duty on her way to assist at a call last Thursday.

Her funeral is planned for today (Thursday), and flags have been lowered at all Town facilities until sunset today.

-30-