

FLU SHOT CLINIC IN CALEDON

Peel Public Health has been holding clinics throughout the Region recently to help people get their flu shots. One such clinic was held at Knox United Church in Caledon village. There was a good crowd of people out to get their shots, and that included Suzanne Kyle of the Caledon village area, who received her shot from Gursimran Lift, a registered nurse. Photo by Bill Rea