

George's notched 13th win in ball hockey

It's a case of the strong getting stronger in the Inglewood Ball Hockey League after last week's action. The top two teams both posted wins, enabling them to pull further ahead in the standings.

June 30

Caledon Hills Cycling 9

Ron's Tire Discounter 3

Caledon Hills were pedaling full steam this night to tighten their grip on second place.

They got goals from Ian Dunn, Kurt Snell, Kelvin Young, Travis Cassar, Dave Philips, Matt White and Peter Christie, with help from White, Snell, Dunn, Philips, Albert Bettridge and Terry Masters.

Ron's Tire got the rubber in the net from Anthony Mellace with a pair and Dillon Hesketh, with assists from the sticks of Jed Franco, Josh Rowland and Tony Sousa.

George's Arena Sports 4

Carney Plumbing 1

The short-benched Carney crew ran out steam on this night and couldn't stop the George's gang from picking up their 13th win in 14 starts.

George's go-to guys were Chris Mete from Matt Chiarantano and Adam Fraccaro, Justin Fiorini from Nick Franseze, Fiorini (unassisted) and David Ruffalo from Mike Volpe and Fraccaro.

Carney's go-to guy was Jesse Rooyakkers from Dave Philips and Todd Elson.