

George's on a roll in Caledon Senior Hockey League play

George's Arena Sports kept their hot streak going last Monday with a 5-2 win over Bolton Chiropractic Centre that knocked the latter out of first place in the Caledon Senior Hockey League.

Rutherford Global Logistics moved back into first, one point ahead of the Chiropractors, by outlasting Yale Industrial Trucks 4-3. In the other game at Don Sheardown Memorial Arena, Fines Ford Lincoln dumped Jiffy Lube Oilers 5-3.

George's 5,

Bolton Chiropractic 2

It was the third win in a row for George's and Maurizio Giorgio led the way with a hat trick.

Greg Farrow matched him in points with three assists. The other goals were scored by Ron Sampson and Jim Rogers. Assists went to Stephan Paccula, Rick Geiger and Dave Smith.

Paul Speck and Rick Agar scored for BCC with assists coming from Mark Perrin and John Crossley.

Rutherford 4,

Yale 3

Peter Coghill and Bob McHardy both notched a goal and an assist for Rutherford.

James Heenan and Bob Smith scored the other goals while Jim Horan had two assists. Bill Frolick had a single helper.

Dan Tasson was the Yale sparkplug with a goal and an assist. Jim Dunbar and Garth Young scored the other goals. John Castellucci nabbed two assists.

Fines Ford 5,

Jiffy Lube 3

Dan Labine and Chris Spilar paced Fines with two goals each while Labine added an assist.

Jack Gibson scored the other goal. Single assists went to Santo Gazzolla, Rod Sinclair, Ian Kerr, John Pitsadiotis and Bill Davis.

Mike McNamara's two goals and an assist led Jiffy Lube while Tony Dinis had one of each. Joe Palumbo, Bill Doherty and Steve Sanderson all grabbed an assist.

January 26

The previous week saw Bolton Chiropractic climb into first place with a 7-1 win over Yale.

Jiffy Lube downed Rutherford 8-3, which allowed the Chiropractors to slip into the league lead, one point ahead of Rutherford. In the other game George's won its second consecutive game, 6-5 over Fines Ford, to get out of the CSHL cellar.

Bolton Chiropractic 7,

Yale 1

Jeff Boyles and Mike Shore led the BCC offence with two goals and an assist each.

Perrin also had three points with three assists while defenceman Gary Stewart stepped up with a goal and one helper. Dave Armstrong and David Shoalts scored the other goals. Speck and Bruno Fracassi both had two assists with singles going to Larry Pevato and Crossley.

Frank Cirone spoiled goaltender Vanni DiMarco's shutout bid on assists from Joe (The Barber) Guaragna and Steve Tarasco.

Jiffy Lube 8,

Rutherford 3

McNamara and Rich Petrie paced the Jiffy Lube squad with two goals each while McNamara also had an assist.

Luch Pinarello was the top points man with a goal and three assists. Doherty had a goal and two assists. Dinis added a goal and an assist and the other goal was scored by Jim Moyer. Bill Jenner and Palumbo each had two assists with Marty Madensky notching one.

Coghill was the top sharpshooter for Rutherford with two goals while Horan had one goal and one assist. Single assists went to Dom Spignasi, Bob Smith and goaltender Santino Paglia.

George's 6,

Fines Ford 5

Bret Smith and Sampson led George's, with Smith getting two goals and two assists and Sampson striking for a goal and four assists. Rogers had a goal and two assists with Giorgio getting the other goal. Paccula had two assists while Gary Faultless had one.

Labine and Sinclair both had a goal and two assists for Fines Ford. Gibson and Spilar scored and set up one goal apiece with John Pallotta scoring the other goal. Single assists went to Mike Gasparini and Davis.

January 19

The week before had George's end their long losing run with a 3-0 win over Yale.

In the other games, Rutherford hung on to first place by virtue of a 4-4 tie with Fines Ford and Bolton Chiropractic downed Jiffy Lube 4-1 to draw to within one point of the leaders.

George's 3,

Yale 0

Three players produced a goal and an assist to power George's: Faultless, Rogers and CSHL newcomer Paccula.

George Armstrong added two assists and Dave Smith had one. Goaltender Paul Garde earned the shutout.

Bolton Chiropractic 4,

Jiffy Lube 1

It was the first win of the season for the Chiropractors over Jiffy Lube, as the Oilers hexed them three times previously, the last time pulling off a win with 2.4 seconds left in the game.

The Bone Benders spread the scoring around, as team sponsor Shore had a goal and an assist with the other goals coming from Speck, Agar and Dave Armstrong. Boyles had two assists. Single assists went to Shoalts, Pevato, Fracassi and Howard Wight.

Dom Orazio broke BCC goaltender DiMarco's shutout bid on an assist from McNamara.

Rutherford 4,

Fines Ford 4

Heenan and Horan handled the scoring with two goals each as Rutherford erased a two-goal Fines Ford lead to gain the tie. Spignasi and Bernie Tisdale each had three assists with singles going to Coghill and McHardy.

Pitsadiotis clicked for a goal and three assists for Fines. Labine, Pallotta and Sinclair all had a goal and an assist. Frank McKay and Kerr each had one assist.