

Headwaters Arts Festival is back for another year

The 2015 edition of the Headwaters Arts Festival was launched Saturday evening with a reception at the Alton Mill Arts Centre. The evening featured good food and entertainment, along with a variety of exhibits of artistic creations. The Festival runs until Oct. 4. Go to headwatersarts.com for more information. Gary Wright of the Hockley Valley area won the Jurors' Choice award for best 3D creation.

Mulmur resident Linda Jenetti won the Jurors' Choice award for best two-dimensional painting with this oil creation depicting the Boyne River in Mulmur. Photos by Bill Rea

Various musicians were providing entertainment at Saturday's reception, including Daniel Fracassi of Orangeville.