

Heart Lake insurance jumps into second place

Victor Marrelli and Luch Pinarello combined to move the red-hot Heart Lake Insurance crew into second place Monday night in Caledon Senior Hockey League action.

While Marrelli ran up six points on a goal and five assists, the veteran Pinarello astonished CSHL observers with three goals in a 6-3 win over Yale Industrial Trucks. That pulled Heart Lake into second place, one point ahead of Yale in the showdown. It was Heart Lake's third consecutive win and fifth in their last six games.

In other CSHL action, Rutherford Global Logistics fought back from several two-goal deficits for a 6-6 tie with Fines Ford Lincoln. And Bolton Chiropractic Centre dumped Jiffy Lube Oilers 7-3.

Heart Lake 6, Yale 3

No one connected with CSHL can remember the last time Pinarello scored three goals in a game.

But many figure he was charged up about his daughter Danielle's annual fundraiser for MS on March 12 at Caesar's Banquet Hall.

Also enjoying a big game for Heart Lake was Greg Frangakas, who scored two goals. Tony Dinis chipped in one assist.

Rich Petrie and Ron Sampson led Yale with one goal and one assist each. Robert Masutti scored the other goal. Single assists went to Domenic Ierullo, Jim Schaefer and Dom D'Orazio.

Rutherford 6, Fines Ford 6

Bret Smith celebrated his return to the Rutherford lineup with three goals and one assist as the Logistics crew shook off a series of bad outings to earn the tie.

Gary Hughes bagged a goal and two assists while Rick Geiger had a goal and an assist. Jim Pitre snapped one off the crossbar for the other goal on a rebound from David Shoalts. Also getting one assist were Joe Palumbo and Gary Stewart.

Mike Foley was the chief wheelman for Fines with three goals and one assist. Greg Collins scored twice, while Marty Madensky added a goal and an assist. Gary Faultless set up two goals with single assists going to Jim Dunbar and James Hardman.

Bolton Chiropractic 7, Jiffy Lube 3

Team rep Nick Taccogna, hot off his birthday celebration (the number is a closely-guarded secret), scored three goals for the Chiropractors.

Ted Callighen and Pete McNamara bagged one goal and one assist each. The other goals were scored by team sponsor Mike Shore and Jim Horan. Mark Perrin and George Armstrong had single assists.

Peter Coghill scored twice for Jiffy Lube with Mike Lo Dico notching the other goal. Assists went to Jeff Boyles, Rick Agar and Dom Spignesi.
