

Library celebrates Flag

Last month saw the 52nd anniversary of the adoption of Canada's flag, and Caledon Public Library celebrated the occasion at the Albion-Bolton branch. The evening included the launch of the latest book by Carolyn j. Morris of Beeton. It's entitled Happy Birthday Canada and is illustrated by Richard McNaughton. Photos by Bill Rea

Participants had the chance to pose with flags, like Sarah Saliba, 5, of Bolton.

Donald Guinn of Toronto provided the music at the event.

The crafts last month included making flags. Sarah Tassone, 9, of the Bolton area and her father Domenic were showing off the flag she put together.
