

Lifetree Café will discuss if there is possibly an afterlife for pets

Will our pets who have died be there to greet us when we pass to the other side?

That question is to be examined at the next session Lifetree Café this coming Wednesday (Feb. 19). The session will run from 7 to 8 p.m. at St. James' Anglican Church, 6025 Old Church Rd. in Caledon East.

The program, entitled Do Good Dogs Go to Heaven? explores the intimate connection between pets and their owners, and whether or not pets have a place in heaven.

A film will be shown that includes visits to a pet euthanasia expert and with pet cemetery caretakers.

Admission to the program is free. Snacks and beverages will be available.

Lifetree Café is a place where people gather for conversation about life and faith in a casual coffeehouse-type setting.
