

Lots of chili in Cheltenham

The fire hall in Cheltenham was recently the scene of the annual Chili Cook Off in support of the Heart and Stroke Foundation. Angelo Fernandes of Brampton served up the chili that was named the best in the show, as well as being voted the best by the public.

Cheltenham area resident Bruce McClure credited his wife Joan with making the hottest chili. Photos by Bill Rea