

Lots of stories told at Culture Cafe

Stories made up the entertainment recently at Alton Mill Arts Centre as Culture Café hosted Stories From Elsewhere. Several artists offered their tales on various topics, as Alton Mill's Arts and Culture Programmer Harry Posner observed that story telling is an ancient form of entertainment. Mark Grice told of his experiences judging a horse show in Brockville, while Kat Selby spoke of her adventures travelling as a teen. Photos by Bill Rea

