

Maciag returning to CrossCurrents

Bolton singer and song writer Robert Maciag will be returning tomorrow (Friday) evening for another performance at CrossCurrents Cafe in Bolton.

Maciag has been attracting the attention of the performing scene for years. The late Brian Linehan once called him "a gem yet to be discovered," after seeing him perform at a Toronto club.

He is currently writing songs for the commercial Nashville market.

CrossCurrents Cafe operates out of Bolton United Church at the corner of King and Nancy Streets (use the side entrance). Doors will open at 7:30 p.m. and the music is slated to start at 8.

Admission is free, but donations are welcome.
